The gallows is looming up bigger than ever before the eyes of Guiteau.

The Inter Ocean maintains that Speaker Keifer's name should be pronounced "Ky-fer." Congress can't do much till this question of how to pronounce the name of the Speaker is settled.

It has been discovered that Senator David Davis has discovered, that the message of President Arthur is the first document of the sort in forty years that has not referred to the South as a distinctive section of the country.

The Milwaukee Sentinel is vexed (1) because the State board of control would not admit a reporter of that paper into the room where the investigation was held; and (2) because the board did not find the Sentinel's charges true. There does not appear to be any comfort in store for the Sentinel. It is like the Democratic party, always in hot water and out of humor.

Guiteau finds an amazing amount of pleasure in being able to draw a full house every day. He could not do so as a lecturer, and hence his maniacal exhibitions of gratified vanity. But when Guiteau stands upon the trap door of the gallows with a rope about his neck, and only one minute between him and eternity, he will realize that notoriety is the worst of vanity.

The slayer of Jim Fisk, the railway king, Edward S. Stokes, having met with great pecuniary success in California, is living in a very extravagant manner in New York. Two large houses which he owned on Twenty-fourth street have been added to the Hoffman house, of which he is said to have become part proprietor. Josie Mansfield is in New York leading a quiet life on her own means.

Congressman Atkins, of Tennessee, is a Democrat of the ultra stripe. He thinks the Democratic party has a cloudy future before it and is determined to defeat, and then he says in a melancholy tone: "We ought to stop our foolishness and stand by the eternal principles of truth and justice." The Democratic party never had any experience in standing by any such thing as the eternal principles of truth and justice.

While the Democrats in Congress have the minority, they still have the little clown, Cox. He has served in the House twenty years—eight years from Ohio, and twelve years from New York city. Annually he steps upon the floor of the House, with the same air and self-importance which usually attach to a clown when he dashes into the ring with "Here I am again," and then subsides to all practical purposes. What a poor clown is to a circus, Samuel S. Cox is to the House of Representatives.

It takes a Democratic paper, to pay the Democratic party a compliment that has some force and meaning to it. There is hardly a Republican paper anywhere that could write a finer testimonial for the Democrats in Congress than this from the Louisville Courier-Journal, which is Democratic in season and out of season: "We are disposed to look upon the Democratic caucus with that sort of good natured complacency not unmingled with contempt which amiable imbecility and harmless impotency usually inspire."

The new line of the Chicago and Northwestern railway running from Madison to Milwaukee, will be opened for passenger and freight traffic on the first of January. There has been some heavy work done on the line, about 1,600,000 cubic yards of earth having been excavated. About the curiosities of the excavations, the State Journal says: "Along the line, sink-holes were continually discovered, these being all that remain of old lakes, now covered with thick growths of tamarack. Many of these old lakes still have some connection with surrounding bodies of water, and when the earth and vegetable growth was once removed, a pool of water was still there, in which numerous dog-fishes were found. One of these old lakes was discovered near Summit Cut, and this has now been well filled up; still another was found near Dousman's station, forty feet deep and about eight hundred feet in length."

THE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.
The following dispatch was sent from Waukesha to the Milwaukee Sunday Telegraph:

WAUKESHA, December 10.—The State board of control have concluded their investigation of the Industrial School which has been thorough. They held their meetings with closed doors, and had before them every inmate of the institution, one at a time, alone before the board. There was not one instance of cruel treatment or punishment or lack of sufficient wholesome food, complained of for the time during which the board has been in office, since the 1st of June last. The boys were unanimous in this testimony.

The State board of control, it is understood, gave the Milwaukee Sentinel charges a pretty thorough investigation, and while the report has not been made public enough has been learned to justify the dispatch sent to the Sunday Telegraph. Since the State board of control have assumed the management of the State institutions, there has been no severe cases of flogging in the Industrial school for boys. A short time before the board went into office, there occurred one or two cases, we understand, of severe corporal punishment, but it was not brutal by any means, and the charge recently made against the management of the school grew out of these cases. But since the State board have had control of the penal and charitable institutions of the State, there has not been found a single case of brutal corporal punishment at the Industrial school. If Superintendent Sleep has managed that school with its scores of disciples of the dime-novel, without inflicting severe corporal punishment, he certainly has done nobly.

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION.

It has taken a great deal of hard work to settle the question of appointments under the new administration, and the latest dispatches from Madison say that the State officers elect have finally decided who shall fill the subordinate positions. The private secretary to Governor Rusk had not been decided for the reason that it was difficult to find a lawyer of good ability and one willing to leave his practice and accept the position of private secretary for $2,000 a year. The Governor elect was anxious that his own son should fill that position, but the young man declined it on the ground that he could not afford to abandon his law business for an annual salary of $2,000.

In the State department the following appointments have been announced:

Assistant secretary of State—M. T. Park, Elkhorn.

Chief clerk—Robert McCurdy, now assistant State treasurer, of Oshkosh.

Book-keeper—D. H. Tullis.

Assistant book-keeper—F. W. Beckman.

Printing clerk—Charles A. Leith.

Recording clerk—A. E. Baur.

In the treasury department the chief appointments are as follows:

Assistant State treasurer—J. A. McFetridge, of Baraboo.

Book-keepers and clerks—Chas. Wedekind, W. B. Hazeltine, Henry Klempell, and Nicholas Kourad.

Attorney General Frisby has not yet decided who shall be his assistant.

In the land office department the following appointments have been settled upon:

Chief clerk—Charles F. Fricke, of Milwaukee.

Clerks—E. S. McBride, John Luchaniger, Peter Fagg, O. R. Olson, B. F. Cram, G. W. Carter, B. J. Castle, and C. M. Foreman.

It is said that W. H. Bennett, of Mineral Point will be superintendent of public property.

Colonel Chandler P. Chapman, of Madison, who is now assistant inspector General on Governor Smith's staff has been appointed adjutant general, and Surgeon General Palmer has been reappointed to that position. General Geo. E. Bryant, who has been quartermaster general for the past four years has been reappointed.

The proposition to have a grand inaugural ceremony, has been abandoned, the State officers elect deeming it wise not to go into office with any unnecessary pomp.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. Colonel Bates, the Nova Scotia giantess, requires eighty yards of material when she wants a new silk dress.

The wreck of the Empire of Franco under the last Napoleon, did not wreck the fortune of ex-Empress Eugenie. She now proposes to make extensive additions to her mansion near London which will cost $50,000.

The story comes from England that the Prince of Wales, on his birthday, has his three young daughters play before him a short dramatic piece to show their progress in foreign tongues. Last year the selection was from the German; this year it was French. The young Princess Louise, Victoria, and Maud acquitted themselves admirably in their respective parts, and the Prince, complimenting the artists, asked for the name of the author.

President Arthur is a man of many resources. The other day he took time to drop the weighty affairs of State to write a note to a lady in Vermont, expressing his opinion on some buttered candy she sent him. He said it was "exceedingly delicious," and then closed the note in the following characteristic manner: "It reached me at dinner time on Thanksgiving day, and was highly praised by all at the table. I think you will be glad to know that Senator Edmunds, who was present, was so much pleased with it that he copied your address with the intention of sending for some himself. Thanking you for your good wishes, I am very truly yours, Chester A. Arthur."

Mrs. General Sherman must be growing in influence and activity as she grows older. She is now charged with filling the war department with Catholic clerics, while Robert Lincoln is not permitted to object.

Mr. Edwin P. Christie, the father of negro minstrelsy, left an estate of about $300,000. By continued litigation it has been reduced to $35,000, which has recently been awarded to the heirs of his widow.

Colonel Forney, who died on Friday in Philadelphia, had only such an education as he received in a printing office, and yet at one time he was one of the most influential men in the nation, his newspaper being a power in the land.

IF.

If Adam had had a game of "Fifteen" placed in his hand at an early period of his existence, the whole course of his life might have been materially altered for the better, and if, in his old age, indigestion, sick headache or dyspepsia were unknown, Serrano Bros. would not be needed. Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

GENERAL JAMES.

He Will Retire From the Cabinet January 1.

New York, December 11.—A Washington special to the Times says: "In dispatches published in some of the newspapers as coming from this city the statement has been repeatedly made that Postmaster General James is to be retained as a member of President Arthur's cabinet until the close of the fiscal year. These reports, coming from whatever source they may, are not made by authority, for there is no authority in fact for any such announcement. The present postmaster-general has not been consulted with the object of inducing him to remain until the close of the fiscal year; nor has he made any arrangement for remaining here later than January 1."

He will certainly leave the capital on that date, or earlier if possible, to attend to business which renders it imperative that he should be in New York at the beginning of the year. It is understood that the engagement referred to is one with the new banking institution in New York city which is to begin operations on the first of January, and with which Mr. James has had an understanding regarding that he shall leave the cabinet as early as that date."

THE CABINET.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The name of Ex-Senator Frelinghuysen will be sent to the Senate probably to-morrow for the position of secretary of State. The President has decided to nominate Benjamin H. Brewster for attorney-general, and it is expected that his name will accompany that of Mr. Frelinghuysen, although it may be held until a later day. If the Senate remains in session until about the 21st it is believed that one or two other changes will be made in the cabinet before the holiday recess.

RAILROADING.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 11.—It has been officially announced that Mr. McCoy, until now Division Superintendent of the Pittsburg & Ft. Wayne road, has been appointed Assistant Superintendent of the Milwaukee division and all the divisions of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad in Wisconsin, to succeed James McCabe resigned. It is understood that Mr. McCabe has accepted a position of trust on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad. Daniel Ahern, who has been connected with the freight department of the Chicago & Northwestern railway in this city for many years, has tendered his resignation, to take effect Jan. 1, in order to accept a position on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad.

OFFICIAL RESIGNATIONS AND APPOINTMENTS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—It is stated that Speaker Keifer will not announce the House committees until the holiday recess. He stated to-night that nothing had yet been done respecting the committees that might not be undone to-morrow. McKinney, of Ohio, declined the chairmanship of the judiciary committee. He will remain on the ways and means committee.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—It is stated that Speaker Keifer will not announce the House committees until the holiday recess. He stated to-night that nothing had yet been done respecting the committees that might not be undone to-morrow. McKinney, of Ohio, declined the chairmanship of the judiciary committee. He will remain on the ways and means committee.

THE GREAT FUNERAL.

VIENNA, Dec. 11.—After an animated controversy as to whether the funeral of the victims of the theater fire should have the character of a public demonstration, the common council decided against a procession. The bodies will be quietly transported to the Central cemetery, where funeral services will be celebrated on Monday with great pomp before a colossal catafalque, on which the coffins will be placed. All the Vienna corporations, and civil and military authorities, are invited to the funeral. Orations will be delivered by Father Marschan, Catholic priest; Father Kanka, evangelical priest; Rabbi Jelinek, and Burgo-master Newald.

The morning papers give a corrected list of the victims. The number is 580.

PITTSBURG HOLOCAUST.

PITTSBURG, Pa., December 11.—The remains of the unfortunate victims of yesterday's horrible holocaust were interred to-day. No friends appeared to claim the remains of any of the dead, except a brother of Michael Kennedy. But as the bodies were burned beyond recognition, it was impossible for him to identify his brother's remains, and he left the coroner's office hardly knowing what to do. The wounded at West Pennsylvania hospital are resting as easy as their painful injuries will permit. The hospital physicians are doing all in their power to alleviate their sufferings. They are receiving careful attention and their every want is being attended to. Martin Laffey and John Connolly are most seriously injured, and will in all probability die in a few days. The rest are getting along as well as could be expected. The McCune family, who kept boarding house, are in destitute circumstances, everything they owned having been destroyed by the fire. A subscription has been started for their relief and the relief of the injured. Coroner Howe has adjourned the inquest until next Wednesday evening.

Years of Suffering.

Mrs. Barnhart, cor. Pratt and Broadway, was twelve years a sufferer from rheumatism, and after trying every known remedy without avail, was entirely cured by Thomas' Electric Oil.

A TROUBLESOME LEGACY.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Among other troublesome legacies inherited by the present administration is the verdict of the court-martial which tried Whittaker, the colored cadet, at West Point. The verdict was a sealed one, and great pains have been taken to keep it secret, but there are good reasons for believing that it was unfavorable to Whittaker. It must now be approved or set aside by the President, and his known hostility to the old caste feeling against the African race makes it more than probable that, should the judge-advocate general, after an examination of the case, decide that the verdict should be set aside, President Arthur will approve of that decision.

Feeble Ladies.

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet, that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity, driving the bloom from your cheeks, that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvellous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?

ROLLING MILL BURNED.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 11.—Gaff, Bennett & Co.'s rolling mill was totally destroyed by fire this morning at an early hour. The mill was situated at Bennett's station, about four miles from this city, on the West Pennsylvania railroad, and was an extensive concern, employing upwards of 1,000 men, who for the time being will be thrown out of work. The fire was first discovered in the carpenter-shop, and is believed to have been the work of an incendiary. The loss will be about $300,000, on which there is an insurance of $150,000.

THERE IS MORSE-STRENGTH restoring power in a 50 cent bottle of Parker's Ginger-Tonic than in a bushel of malt or a gallon of milk. As an appetizer, blood purifier and kidney corrector, there is nothing like it, and invalids find it a wonderful invigorant for mind and body. See other columns.

SHOT HIMSELF.

PAOLA, Kas., Dec. 10.—C. C. Armstrong, a young man recently from Cincinnati, went hunting a day or two ago a couple of miles from here, and while out shot himself through the head, evidently with suicidal intent. He was in prosperous circumstances, and no cause can be assigned for the act.

AN INSANE WOMAN.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 11.—A woman named Mrs. Fischer, residing on Tenth street, suddenly became insane this forenoon, and, getting possession of an ax, attempted to brain her four little children. Her husband, in trying to save the children from the infuriated mother, received a death-wound, a terrible gash laying his skull bare. He is alive, but cannot possibly survive.

A LOST BALLOON.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The government balloon, in charge of Captain Templer, accompanied by Walter Powell, M. P. for Malmesbury, and a gentleman named Gardner, ascended at Bath yesterday and descended at Bridgeport. The balloon struck the ground heavily and Gardner and Capt. Templer were thrown out and injured. The balloon then rose with the wind, and was seen again to descend again at sea. Nothing has been heard of the balloon or Powell.

THERE IS NOTHING like dressing your local items in rhetorical finery, even if you do have to come to plain English at the end. See an example: An Oswego paper describes a fire by saying that "the flames danced in the heavens and flung their fiery arms about like a black funeral pall, until Sam Jones got upon the roof and dashed them out with a pail of water."

You can't get enough in a week to last you a year, and you can't advertise on that plan either.

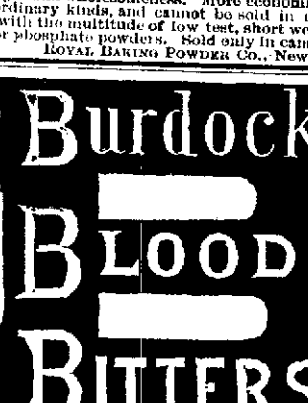

Dracoon Gandam flourishes in Lock Haven, New York. When the minister wishes a collection taken up for the little heathen on "India's coral strand," and says: "Deacon Gandam, you please pass the hat," he has to be careful how he places his commus.

"Go, my son, and shut the sinner." "That's a hard mother an' a hard son." "Shut the sinner," the boy did mutter. "I can't shut it any sinner."
